

Coming Marriages.

A date has been set for the marriage of Miss Pearl Davenport of Helena, Mont., and Mr. Duncan McVie of this city for Wednesday, Oct. 23. The marriage will be one of the most important social events of Helena and is of interest to Salt Lake. Mrs. Clifford R. Pearsall will be the matron of honor and a number of the leading young men of Helena will be the ushers.

An event of the coming week in which many Salt Lake friends are interested is the marriage on Wednesday next of Miss Harriet Friendly of Portland, Ore., and Mr. Edward Rosenbaum of this city. The wedding is to be a quiet affair and after the young people make a trip to the coast they will make their home in Salt Lake.

Cards have been received in the city announcing the coming marriage of Miss Flora Berenice Riley of San Francisco to Lieutenant Wilfred A. Tron of Wiltshire, England. The marriage will take place next Sunday.

The wedding of Miss Bessie Birkinshaw and Mr. Gordon H. Place will take place Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents. Miss Eliza Birkinshaw will attend her sister and Dr. J. U. Giesey will be the best man.

Tomorrow morning is the day set for the marriage of Miss Afton Kimball and Mr. Adrian Pembroke. The wedding is to be a quiet one and later the young people leave for a trip to the coast.

The engagement is announced of Miss Maud Bradford Hayne of Minneapolis to Mr. William McManis of this city. The marriage will take place early in November at the home of the bride's parents in Minneapolis, for which place the groom-to-be leaves shortly.

The marriage of Miss Ethel Saville and Mr. James T. Young will take place Thursday morning in the temple. It will be followed by a large and elaborate reception at the home of the bride's parents Thursday evening.

A Beautiful Luncheon.

The luncheon given Tuesday by Miss Dorn at the Alta club in honor of Mrs. Luelsitz was one of the prettiest ever seen in the gold room. The table was in the form of a hollow square, the inside being filled with low palms. Around the outer edge was a low bed of American Beauties and white asters, with white incandescent lights embedded under the flowers. American Beauties were used as favors for each guest. Unfortunately, Mrs. Luelsitz was unable to be present, but the other guests were: Mrs. Thomas Kearns, Mrs. A. C. Ewing, Mrs. Charles Wilkes, Mrs. Rose, Mrs. Charles Walker, Mrs.

C. R. Pearsall, Mrs. Robert Glendinning, Mrs. David S. Murray, Mrs. Russell L. Tracy, Mrs. James L. Franken, Mrs. George L. Nye, Mrs. W. S. Brown of Fremont, Neb.; Mrs. C. B. Diehl, Mrs. A. C. Allen, Mrs. W. H. Cunningham, Mrs. May McMillan, Miss McGrath, Miss McIntyre, Miss Elizabeth McIntyre, Miss Sherman, Miss Laura Sherman, Miss Miller, Miss Margie Miller, Miss Grace Jacobs, Miss Eleanor Dooly and Miss Jasmine Young.

Four O'Clock Tea.

One of the most beautifully appointed receptions of the autumn was that given Tuesday by Mrs. W. L. Snyder and Miss Cora Snyder in honor of Mrs. Le Compté of Park City and Miss Beers of San Francisco. The large rooms and spacious hallways were decorated profusely with palms, cut flowers and autumn leaves. Rich masses of color in red and yellow hung over the arches and above the curtains. An orchestra stationed on the landing was hidden by a bank of sunflowers, and the hall was one blaze of brilliant yellow. Punch was served in the library by Mrs. A. R. Weeter of Park City and in the dining room Mrs. Jay T. Harris and Mrs. Ellsworth Daggett presided at the table, pouring tea and coffee. The young girls who assisted in the dining room were Miss Pike, Miss Le Compté, Miss Finley and Miss Kenyon. Mrs. Thomas Kearns was one of the receiving party with the guests of honor. Nearly 200 ladies called during the afternoon hours.

Reception.

Mrs. A. D. Melvin was the guest of honor at a charmingly arranged reception at the home of Mrs. George D. Alder given Thursday afternoon. The house decorations were very effective, the parlor being done in yellow and the library in red. Sprays of autumn leaves were festooned over the doorways and ivy was entwined in the chandeliers. In the dining room American Beauties were used on the table, and the lights in the chandeliers showed the same tint in the shades. Mrs. Alder and the guest of honor were assisted in receiving by Mrs. C. L. Knight and Mrs. L. W. Snow. Mrs. Arthur Pratt, Jr., served punch and the dining room was in charge of Mrs. Will G. Farrell, assisted by Miss Sybil Foote and Miss May Alder. Mrs. Will Pratt poured tea and Mrs. Louis Hills presided at the coffee urn. About 200 ladies enjoyed the hospitality of the pleasant home.

Afternoon Reception.

Another beautiful reception was that of Friday at the home of Mrs. M. K. Parsons, given by herself and Mrs. James Eager. The home was decorated entirely in autumn leaves and dahlias. The drawing room, hall and library were done in red leaves and deep red dahlias. In the dining room yellow leaves and yellow dahlias were used and the table decorations were made to correspond. The ladies were assisted by Mrs. C. Ira Tuttle and Mrs. William Bartling, who poured tea and coffee in the dining room, assisted by Mrs. Harry Knight, Miss Amy Pike, Miss Lucile Sears and Miss Beebe. In the hall Miss Elsie Parsons and Miss Edith Godde served punch. A great number of friends called during the hours.

At Breakfast.

A pleasant social event of the week was the breakfast given yesterday morning in Park City at which Mrs. William M. Ferry was the hostess. Half of the guests were from Salt Lake and the others from Park City, the Salt Lake guests leaving here early yesterday morning and returning late last night. The entire day was spent in a most delightful way, the women from Salt Lake being Mrs. Clifton S. Kinney, Mrs. George R. Hancock, Mrs. William C. Jennings, Mrs. W. A. Nelson, Mrs. C. D. Moore, Mrs. Van Arman, Mrs. E. E. Critchlow and Mrs. Frank A. Vincent.

Evening Musical.

The home of Colonel and Mrs. Nephth W. Clayton was the scene Wednesday evening of a large and enjoyable musical given by Miss Zibella Clayton in honor of Miss Ethel Saville and Mr. James T. Young, whose marriage will take place Thursday. The home was decorated throughout in the autumn colors, leaves and flowers forming bowers of beauty and fragrance. A splendid programme, in which some of the leading artists of the town took part, was given during the evening. Miss Emma Ramsey was the vocalist of the evening, Mr. Skelton, Mr. McClellan and Miss Clayton being the other musicians. Miss Margaret Werner presided at the punch bowl and the Misses Taylor, Whitney and Brooks and Mrs. Phelps had charge of the dining room. About eighty guests were entertained.

At Cards.

The card party given by the ladies of the Altar society of St. Mary's at the home of Senator and Mrs. Thomas Kearns Thursday evening was a most successful affair. The evening was in charge of Mrs. Way, Mrs. McDermott and Mrs. Bero, and about 200 guests enjoyed the entertainment. The game played was sixty-three and prizes were won by Mrs. Cornforth, Mr. Cosgriff and Mr. Meagher.
